

Date of the conference: May 18th, 2023

Title: Living in a world of Harmony: New valve technology to treat pulmonary regurgitation

Date of online publication: May 23rd, 2023

Expiry date: August 17th, 2023

---

Objectives: At the end of this activity, the participant will be able to:

- Know the data and indications for pulmonary valve replacement
- Be aware of the new technologies for transcatheter pulmonary valve replacement
- Appreciate some of the challenges and complications of transcatheter pulmonary valve replacement

Target Audience

Cardiologists, cardiac surgeons, anesthesiologists, internists, residents and other health professionals working in the cardiovascular field

Speaker

Dr. Barry Love, MD Director, congenital cardiac catheterization Laboratory, Mount Sinai Hospital NY

Conflicts of interest

See disclosures: Honoraria Medtronic. Research support Medtronic and Edwards Lifesciences

Accreditation

This activity is an accredited group training activity (section 1) within the meaning of the Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada as well as a recognized professional development activity (Category A) as defined by the College of Physicians of Quebec.

The Continuing Professional Development Département (DDPC) of the Federation of Medical Specialists of Quebec has approved this activity.

You can declare a maximum of 1 hour in section 1 / recognized professional development activity (Category A). Participants must claim a number of hours consistent with the duration of their participation.

Scientific Committee

Dr Serge Doucet, Cardiology, Hemodynamics, Director of Education

Dr. Carmen Baltazar, Emergency physician, Head of emergency education

Mrs. Amélie Doherty, Assistant to the Director of Education

Mr. Julien Le Van, Pharmacist, Head of pharmacy education